OLD BUSINESS

An update was given pertaining to the comments from Northville Township resident George Fomin voiced at the December 7th City Council meeting. Fomin's comments pertained to safety concerns with pedestrian and vehicle traffic at the crosswalk between Northville Square and the parking lot. It was pointed out that the next day, the Public Works Director had placed "yield to pedestrian" signs at the crosswalk. In addition, the Police Department increased patrols in the area to address the one-hour parking spaces being used as a "standing zone" and to monitor vehicle speed. It was noted that the Police are doing their job to make this area safer for everyone. The Police and DPW Director were commended for addressing the concerns expressed by Mr. Fomin.
