	As a homeowner of a contributing historic home within Northville's Historic District and a resident of the City of Northville, MI for the better part of the past three decades, I am very dedicated and interested in preserving

Why do you want to serve on this board?	our local historic heritage. I have many unique talents and experience in the field of historic preservation, sharing them to serve my community as we navigate our future endeavors. I know my skills are an asset to my community as we navigate through new and existing property owners and their individual interests and concerns as they update their homes and businesses within the Historic District.
Areas of expertise you would bring to this board	I have faithfully served as past Historic District Commissioner from 2003-2013, including holding the position of HDC Vice-Chair. Currently, I serve the city as an Historic District Survey Study Committee member, as we review and oversee the update of the local Northville Historic District inventory of private homes and business properties. I actively volunteer at the Northville Historical Society and now serve as the NHS Executive Director managing our staff and volunteers at the Mill Race Historical Village. I have participated in numerous Michigan Historic Preservation Network training seminars and conferences, working closely with the State Historic Preservation Office. I have lobbied for Preservation House Bills, and follow the Secretary of Interior Standards. In addition, I have assisted the City of Northville with other study committees, updating the applications for work to a property within the local Historic District, local design standards, including redrawing our Historic District borders in 2003. In addition, I am skilled at reading blueprints, design and material specs and have hands on experience and knowledge of carpentry and building trades. This includes past building practices and current state of the art materials and restoration practices.
Education	BFA Alfred University, Alfred, New York Ceramic Art & Design, Art History Life experiences and training in restoration of historic homes.
