Jeff Cancelosi has resigned from the commission.

Sorella's Bakery donated the desserts, and an anonymous sponsor took care of the $250 as a main sponsor for September's First Friday

Small Works deadline is over. We had a 103 entries from 38 artists. With 57 pieces from 27 artists.

Other Business:

Holiday raffle baskets donations are well on their way. By the end of the month, we will have all contributions submitted and tickets with the list of sponsors will be printed in time to sell during November First Friday. All commissioners are at least responsible for selling $30 in raffle tickets.

Ellen Bennett and Joan Potter Thomas have unveiled the new website, northvillearthouse.org.

Liz is organizing a children's festival on Cady Street for the Spring, pending approval from the city. Girl scout troops, honor's society students and college Interns would be good candidates to get involved for credit. Schoolcraft could sponsor the event to advertise and promote their children's Summer camps.

Sue Taylor motioned to move forward with the Spring Children's festival, Lesa Buckland seconded, and it was approved unanimously.

Took Gallagher suggests purchasing a cotton candy machine.

Adjournment: 8:18 p.m.
